POSTMASTER FISHER IS RE-APPOINTED

Nomination Sent to Senate Today by the President.

This Will Be the Third Time for the Popular Official.

PRESENT TERM NOT YET OUT.

Washington, April 16.—Frank M.
Fisher's nomination for the postoffice at Paducah was sent to the senate by the president today.

The news of Postmaster Fisher's appointment contained in the above
brief dispatch, while not a surprise
to his friends, came a few weeks ahead of time as Mr. Fisher's term is not out for about a month.

The appointment is for the third term, Mr. Fisher now serving his second. He had no opposition for the appointment this time, and the office comes to him fittingly as a recognition of his services for the party
in Paducah and West Kentucky.

UNIQUE RESTAURANT PARTLY WRECKED

Part of East Wall and Ceiling
Fell at Noon Today.

Wall Weakened by Excavating Being Done for New House Adjoining Property.

INCIDENT AN ALARMING ONE.

The "Unique Restaurant," located on Broadway between Fourth and Fifth streets, operated by Hawkins Brothers, partially collapsed at 12 o'clock today. Several patrons of the place narrowly escaped serious injury if not death, the furniture of the restaurant badly damaged, and a panic among guests and the public generally created for a while.

The east wall of the one-story building collapsed in the center and the roof began to break and fall in.
The breaking was slow to start and the warning crackling of the sinking walls and crumbling ceiling were slow in their purpose, the guests not suspecting the real danger that surrounded them until the brick began to fall and the walls fell with a loud rumbling, audible more than two blocks away.

Dr. W. H. Pitcher and F. F. Du-ley were seated against the wall
waiting for their dinner to be served.
There were two others in the dining room, but these were strangers to the Paducah doctors. The first intimation of the disaster came by a wondering of the walls and a crackling sound as the ceiling began to part and the side of the building to sink. Dr. Duley interpreted the sound as a warning for a hasty decampment, and grabbing his hat
started for the door. Dr. Pitcher was slow to leave and Duley grabbed him just as the walls crashed in.
Had they hesitated a moment longer
they might have been killed outright. The two strangers, one of them a steamboatman by the name
of Ford, it is said, escaped by running into the rear.

The east wall in the center of the building fell completely in for a distance of ten or fifteen feet and the roof began to sink and threaten to fall. The soda water fountain was fortunately not damaged and the kitchen department remained intact.
The operation of the restaurant was suspended, however, and the proprietors secured temporary quarters
in the building formerly occupied by the Brunswick billiard hall across the street. The soda water fountain was removed there for safety immediately following the accident.

The property is owned under a long lease by a realty company. The cause of the accident is attributed to a weakly built foundation and the fact that in excavating for a new building adjoining the wall had been weakened and permitted to sag outward.

The total damages cannot be estimated, but from indications the wall
will have to be practically rebuilt.
The restaurant firm carries some insurance and also the owners of the house.

KING TIRES OF WIFE.

Frederick of Saxony Says He Was Imposed Upon.

Dresden, Saxony, April 16.—King
Frederick, not withstanding the denials, is endeavoring to obtain from the pope the ecclesiastical sanction
for a divorce from the Countess Montignone in order to be able to marry again. This will be possible if the countess is willing to declare under oath that her parents forced her to marry him while he was in a somno-lent condition which she affirmed after her flight from the Saxony capital.

Coveted By Rockefeller.

Paris, April 16.—William Rockefeller is said to be negotiating for the purchase of the historic Talleyrand Palace in Rue St. Dominique. It is one of the few remaining palaces of the aristocracy of the ancient regime. The price demanded by the heir is 2,000,000 francs.

POPULAR MAN DIES

MR. CHARLES HOLLIDAY succumbs to LINGERING ILLNESS.

Was Valued Citizen, Member of Local Mail Service, and Lending Lodgeman.

Mr. Charlie Holliday, popular member of the local mail service and a valued citizen died at his home,
No. 527 South Sixth street, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, of stomach trouble, after an illness of five months. Death was not unexpected, his condition having been serious for the past week or two, and his family had become reconciled to his hopeless condition and inevitable end.
He had been confined to his bed
eight weeks.

The deceased was born in Calendonn, Ill., June 30th, 1855, and came to Paducah with his parents at the age of five years, in 1860. He was educated in the Paducah schools
and during his early life engaged in the cooperage business. Later he stood the civil service examination and for sixteen years had been a mail carrier—one of the most popular in the service.

He married Miss Georgia Sanders, of Paducah, January 5th, 1881, and leaves a wife and three children.
The children are Mr. George Holliday, of the Oehlischlaeger pharmacy
at Sixth and Broadway; Mr. Brooks
Holliday, a pupil in the High school,
and Mrs. Ivo Pettit, wife of the well known young American Express company attaché. He leaves one brother, Mr. L. T. Holliday, of Woodland Mills, Tenn., and a half sister, Mrs. Mary Strimbach, of Ballard county, Ky.

The deceased was prominent in lodge circles, taking part in all matters pertaining to the local lodge of Masons. He has been for years an officer in this order, and at the time
of death was secretary of the following branches of the Masons: Paducah lodge No. 127, Free and Accepted Masons; Paducah Royal Arch,
chapter No. 30; Paducah Council
No. 32, and Paducah Commandery Knights Templar. He was also a member of the Ladies of the Eastern Star and of the Golden Cross order.
Only the latter order carries with it life insurance.

The deceased was a member of the First Presbyterian church and the funeral will be conducted from that church this afternoon at 3 o'clock under the auspices of the lodges of which he was a member, services by Rev. W. E. Cave, with interment at Oak Grove. A host of friends are gathering to pay the deceased their last respects.

Visitors Are Wedded.

Stokes McDugall, aged 29, of Model, Tenn., and Adelyn Watson, aged 30, of La Center, Ky., were licensed to marry this morning by Clerk Smedley. Later, at the boarding house of H. B. Osborn, on Kentucky avenue near Third street, the couple were united in wedlock by Justice
J. J. Bleich.

Record of Alleged Bigamist.

Atlantic City, April 14.—Dr.
Phillips Randolph Robinson was arrested here charged with bigamy.
He is alleged to have married at least five women and left each after getting their jewelry and money. He was held in $2,000 bail. He is supposed to have followed a wealthy
New York woman here to woo her.

Mr. Fred McKnight has accepted
a position with a Henderson, Ky., lumber firm and will leave today for Henderson.

STRIKE TROUBLES HAVE BEGUN

Conflicts in Pennsylvania at Several Points Reported.

Six Young Friends, Two Black and Four White, On Trial At London, Ky.

MORE BANDITS NEAR MANILA

Wilkesbarre, Pa., April 16.—
Mounted police were called last midnight to quell a serious disturbance
at Georgetown during which four men and one woman were shot, two men stabbed and a store dynamited.
At Pittston, Joseph Cigle and son
were shot and badly wounded by two Italians. Other disturbances are reported throughout the anthracite district.

Six Young Friends On Trial.

London, Ky., April 16.—The six-year-old daughter of W. J. Armstrong, an insurance agent of Louisville, temporarily located here, was criminally assaulted by two negroes and four white boys. The child is in a serious condition. The boys were arrested and are on trial. The excitement is high and the boys may be handled roughly.

Ladron Bandits Near Manila.

Manila, P. I., April 16.—Forty ladron bandits raided the headquarters of the Philippine constabulary
in Malolos Island, Luzon, today.
They captured 20 rifles and escaped
after killing three men and losing one of their number. The exploit was one of the boldest the ladrones
have made since American occupation. Malolos is only 20 miles from Manila and the raid caused considerable surprise among the Americans.
The constabulary defended their quarters but were outnumbered.

Many Telephone Linemen On Strike.

Norfolk, Va., April 16.—Four thousand linemen and other electrical workers of the Southern Bell Telephone company in Virginia, West
Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama went on a strike today for an increase of wages. The telephone system south is badly crippled.

Sentence to Jail for Contempt.

Springfield, Ill., April 16.—Judge Humphreys, of the federal court, today sentenced Col. J. Hamilton Lewis, corporation counsel of Chicago,
who formerly represented the state of Washington in congress, to 60
days in jail for contempt of court.
The sentence will be remitted on condition Lewis dismisses the civil suit instituted in Madison county
against the Alton Waterworks in violation of an injunction by Judge Humphreys.

Just to Dismiss Question.

Springfield, Ill., April 16.—Representatives of the Illinois miners left today for Indianapolis to meet the operators and discuss the question of maintaining emergency men at the mines to keep them in order. These men have been at work on the general opinion among Illinois operators that the suspension would not last much longer.

Wouldn't Stand Reyling.

Valdosta, Ga., April 16.—Rev.
Rawlings who with two sons, in an order sentence for killing the Carter children, almost fatally beat up a fellow prisoner yesterday who reviled Rawlings for rending the Bible.
The Rawlings boys say their father
is insane.

VON RUELOW'S CONDITION.

May Never Be Able to Resume Government Leadership.

Berlin, April 16.—Despite the reassuring statements issued by Prof. Reubers for the benefit of the public, it is said Prince Buelow's condition is altogether sad and discouraging. His lower limbs are paralyzed and useless, his hair has whitened, his frame has become emaciated and his spirits seem to be crushed.

Nearly all of Good Friday was spent by the chancellor in prayer with Dr. Stocker, who informed his friends that he was shocked at the feebleness and reduced condition of the prince. Dr. Stocker declares that it is out of the question that Prince Buelow will ever be able to take up the government leadership.

ACCIDENT ON BATTLESHIP.

Six Men Killed on the Kearsarge by Mysterious Explosion.

Washington, D. C., April 16.—The navy department has received word
of a serious accident on the battleship Kearsarge, while she was engaged in target practice near Calebra. An explosion occurred in one of the forward turrets. Lieut. John M. Huggins and five men were killed and one officer and a number of men slightly injured. The accident occurred at the conclusion of target practice in the forward turret of the Kearsarge as the powder was being taken down. The men were buried in Guantanamo.

FORMOSA SUFFERS

FROM ANOTHER SERIOUS VISITA-TION FROM AN EARTH-QUAKE.

Several Towns on the Southern Part of the Island and Many Lives Destroyed.

Tokio, April 16.—A violent earthquake occurred Saturday morning in the southern part of the island of Formosa. The casualties and damage done are reported to have been heavier than those of the last earthquake.
Kagi was again the principal sufferer houses which escaped destruction in the former disturbance being now in ruins. Doko and several other towns and villages also were affected by landslides which have changed the topography of the country. Officials are working feverishly to relieve thousands of persons
left homeless by the earthquake.
Terrible scenes are reported around Kagi and Doko.

Later Information Corroborative

Tokio, April 16.—The latest advices from Formosa confirm the previous reports of the destruction of a number of towns in the southern part of the island by earthquakes.
The town of Kagi is completely destroyed. The casualties at Daigo are seven killed and thirty-five injured
and about 400 buildings destroyed.
In the Ajensui district three were killed and fifteen injured and over 1,000 houses collapsed.

(As a result of the earthquake in Formosa last month, 1,194 were killed,
695 injured and 1,200 houses
were demolished. The prosperous towns of Daliyo, Ralshiko and Shinko were completely destroyed. The damage done was roughly estimated at $45,000,000.)

CONGRESS THIS WEEK

VOTE ON RATE BILL DOESN'T SEEM TO BE NEAR.

States and France Friday to Pay Homage to Memory of Ben Franklin.

Washington, D. C., April 16.—
Speeches on the railroad rate bill will be a feature in the United States senate the present week. There is no immediate prospects for securing an agreement upon a time for voting on the bill.

The feature of the week in the house of representatives is to be the passage of the free alcohol bill.
There is little opposition to the bill itself, the only task connected with its passage being to prevent its use for the purpose of producing a record for other revenues on the reform propositions.

Pensions are to have the right of the way Tuesday and on that day also the appropriation bill for the District of Columbia will be reported.
This bill will be taken up Wednesday and will serve as the legislative topic for the rest of the week.

Homage to Franklin's Memory.

Washington, D. C., April 16.—
United States and France this week will join in paying homage to the memory of Benjamin Franklin. In Paris on Friday will occur the unveiling of the statue of Franklin near the site of the home he occupied
when American minister to France.
The statue is the gift of John H. Harjes, the American banker of Paris.
In Philadelphia the American Philosophical society, which was founded by Franklin, will hold an international celebration April 17 to 20 of the bi-centennial of his birth.

MAYOR YEISER HAD CONGESTIVE CHILL

Stricken Sunday Afternoon and Was Quite Ill For Time.

He Is Much Better Today, However,
and Early Recovery Is Indicated.

OTHER CITY NEWS ITEMS.

Mayor Yeiser was stricken with a congestive chill Sunday afternoon
and for a while was a very sick man.
Today however, he is much better
and his physician, Dr. D. G. Murrell, says he should recuperate rapidly.

Mayor Yeiser has been ailing for the last two months. He has been suffering of a slight attack of rheumatism and neuralgia, but the latter part of last week seemed much better than he had been for some time.
Sunday afternoon, with Mrs. Yeiser,
he went out to his country home in Arcadia to visit his sister-in-law, Mrs.
Frank Brown, and was stricken while out there. He was brought to the city at once and physicians summoned, and he was soon out of danger,
and today Dr. Murrell says he appre-hends no serious results from the chill.

The Council Tonight.

The council meets in regular session tonight and has a good deal of business on hands. The ordinances
for the improvement of the downtown streets and Fifth street, which are to be improved this year, will be brought in for first passage. They were brought in at the last meeting
but the sidewalks and street work
were embodied in the same ordinances so they were sent back to have separate ordinances brought in covering each.

The street car company franchise
ordinances authorizing the changes and extensions of the car tracks will be brought in again for second passage, but they will be amended tonight with a provision calling for the maintenance of the street two feet
outside the tracks, instead of one as in the first ordinance. An amendment will also probably be brought in changing the route from Madison to Clay on Fifth, and making the line run on Fourth to Clay, then up to Fifth and thence north to Trimble
instead of on Madison to Fifth,
thence to Trimble.

The ordinance calling for the reconstruction of the sidewalks on Broadway from Ninth to 11th will be given first passage.

The appointment of the electrical inspector will also be approved.
A resolution will be passed employing a special police officer to be mounted to enforce the cow law, and Mr. Lycurgus Rice will probably be selected for the place.

The board of health will have some ordinances up for passage if they can be gotten in shape in time,
among them being one for the establishment of a garbage system where-
by the garbage will be collected daily.
There is great demand for it, but as the expense would have to be borne by the city this year, nothing
will probably be done with it.

The Light Plant.

The committees on the light plant improvement have not met yet so there will be no report from them. It is learned the council will not improve the plant this year as it finds it won't have the money but that the estimates will be gotten, and all the plans arranged so the work can be let promptly by the new council next year, if it so wishes.

The New Bridge.

The committee on the new bridge
across Island Creek may have a report for tonight, but it is not thought it will be ready.

WIFE WITH MAN.

Husband Attempts to Shoot Him But Kills His Little Son.

Quitman, Ga., April 16.—C. E.
Lloyd returned home Saturday night
and found his wife with a man named Davis of Quitman. Lloyd attempted to shoot Davis, but the latter wrenched the revolver from Lloyd's hands. Lloyd then secured another pistol and waited at the back door
for Davis. When the door knob turned Lloyd fired four shots rapidly
through the door to find later that he had shot and killed his little son.
He fired two shots at Davis as he ran out of the house, but missed.

CROWDED BOAT SINKS.

Party of Evansville Excursionists
Have Frightful Experience
Sunday.

Evansville, Ind., April 16.—The excursion steamer Louisiana carrying 400 passengers, struck a snag in the Ohio river last night, and will be a total loss. The passengers were panic stricken, but by running the boat at full speed into the bank all were rescued. Capt. Morgan says
the steamer has settled in 20 feet of water.

Big Swindler Freed.

London, April 16.—Jabez Spencer
Balfour, formerly a financial magnate and a member of parliament,
who was sentenced to 14 years imprisonment in 1895 for extensive frauds, has been released from prison. It is estimated that the poor middle class of England lost about $30-000,000 by his operations.

THE CHIEF IS BACK

JAMES COLLINS HOME FROM HIS TRIP TO HOT SPRINGS.

Declares He Will Handle His Reduced Force to Best Advantage Possible.

Chief of Police James Collins returned yesterday from Hot Springs, Ark., after attending the annual convention of the chiefs of police of the United States, and had a most enjoyable time. The session lasted one week, from Monday until Saturday, and Chief Collins met many great detectives who were in attendance, among them being Wm. Pinkerton, of the greatest agency of the world.

Marshal Wm. McCullum, of Kittawa, was also in attendance, but he returned Thursday, two days ahead of Chief Collins.

Chief Collins is pleased with Hot Springs and his reception. Mr. Sam Jackson, the Paducah boy, who is one of the leading druggists of Hot Springs, entertained the chief and all his friends even neglecting his business and incidentally his sweetheart to make the chief have a good time.

Lieutenant Tom Potter, who is in Hot Springs for rheumatism, is better but not able to come home yet.

The Reduced Force.

When Chief of Police James Collins left Paducah, over a week ago
he had a police force of 21 men, exclusive of the officers at the desk
and two detectives, and on his return found he was two detectives
short and three policemen.
"I will do the best I can with the present force," he stated this morning, "and will assign them to beats
as soon as I can study over the matter. I intend to send some in twos and some alone and will map this out today or tomorrow."

Chief Collins stated positively that experience had taught him that two men were necessary on Broadway and on the depot beat and he would put the regular number on these two beats. On beats where few arrests are made and little disorder is experienced the single file men will be assigned.

One never realizes how ignorant
some of our leading citizens are until they are hauled up to testify before an investigation committee.

PADUCAHAN OWNS ENTIRE RAILROAD

Our Real Live Magnate Well Known Citizen.

Built to Foster His Coal Mine Enterprise Located at Carbondale, Kentucky.

RAIL NOTES OF LOCAL INTEREST

A real live railroad magnate resides in Paducah—one who owns a railroad all to himself. This morning the gentleman left for his road, which is now nearing completion, to put the finishing touches to the track
work. He carried two long handled shovels with him to perform the work with. He stated his road would be ready for operation this week.

Mr. Braek Owen, of the Carbondale, Ky., coal mines, is the magnate.
He has one small branch road running from his mines to the I. C., but the route was inconvenient and he set about to build an independent railroad. It runs from Hamby Station on the I. C. to Buckanort in Hopkins county, a distance of three miles. There will be one engine to work the trains. While the road is not built for passenger service passengers will not be turned down.

Mr. Owen will shortly receive bids for an engine, which will constitute his motive power. The road cost him $25,000.

Excursion to Memphis.

The I. C. road ran an excursion to Memphis, Tenn., Sunday morning, the train leaving Paducah at 10 o'clock.
There were ten coaches and one baggage car and a total of 234 tickets were sold out of Paducah. The train will leave Memphis this afternoon late, arriving in Paducah about midnight. It was a mixed excursion.

Pay Our Tomorrow.

The I. C. pay car will arrive from Illinois tomorrow and pay off here,
going east from Paducah.

New Ticket Agent and Operator.

Mr. Paul Graham, night ticket agent and operator at the local I. C.
union depot, has resigned his position effective at once, and has been succeeded by Mr. Thomas Watson, of Hopkinsville, Ky. Mr. Watson is a young man who has been in the I. C. service for some time. He took charge of the office here last night
and will continue in the capacity.

Supt. Egan Again Here.

Supt. A. H. Egan, of the Louisville division of the I. C., is in the city today. He went as far as Fulton on the excursion yesterday, returning this morning.

Took Half Day Off.

Foreman Emil Goureaux, of the local I. C. car repairing shops, took a half day off Saturday afternoon to attend to some pressing business. It is said this is the first vacation he has taken in many years.

I. C. at Work on Line.

The litigation over the right of way for straightening and shortening
the Illinois Central railroad between Atoka and Kerville Tenn., has been compromised and settled, and deeds
secured from all the land owners.
The construction of the new track will commence at once where it was left off when stopped by the litigation.
The line leaves Tipton over three-fourths of a mile to the east,
and the town will probably be moved over to the new line. The new track will be made double, and when completed the Illinois Central will have a double track from Woodstock to Chicago.

Supt. J. J. Gaven and Roadmaster
T. E. Hill, of the Tennessee division of the I. C., are in the city attending court.

SEES ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS

Observer Matteucci and His Assistants Eye Witnesses.

Stood Ordeal When Momentarily It Looked as if Death Was at Hand.

MATTEUCCI'S OWN STATEMENT.

Naples, April 16.—The Associated Press correspondent Saturday reached the highest habitable point on Mount Vesuvius, where Prof. Matteucci, director of the Royal Observatory, has courageously held his post throughout the eruption. The noted scientist was found comparatively undisturbed by his recent fearful experiences.

As he came forward to greet the correspondent, his blackened face and dust-covered clothes told of the ordeal through which he had passed. The portico where he stood was knee deep in ashes, which had to be swept aside to make a small footway. From the observatory terrace, to which narrow paths had been cut through the ashes, the correspondent looked out over a sea of ashes and twisted rivers of lava, while Vesuvius rose grimly in a mantle of dust clouds rising like a gigantic fan.

Prof. Matteucci was asked to tell in his own way the story of the catastrophe from the outset. He gave the following detailed narrative:

"I first observed Mount Vesuvius giving unusual signs about a month ago, when the lava began to overflow, taking a southward direction. This gradually increased as several small lava streams formed into one great current.

"Our really terrible period came at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, and lasted until 8 o'clock. The mountain which had hitherto had been silent suddenly gave out a deafening roar, and a great rent was made in its cone. Huge solid rocks were hurled skyward. Some of them fell near the observatory, threatening to crush in the roof. There was no scoria in the first discharge but bullet-like stones, which cut the roof and damaged the windows.

"At midnight of Saturday I ordered the women and children of the household removed. This was just before the rain of huge stones began, and I was then left with Prof. Perret, of New York, my assistant and two domestics. There was scarcely any eating, and all domestic order was abandoned. We snatched a few bites now and then, most of the time I ate right here, and the observer pointed to the remains of a recent meal on the desk in his study.

"Throughout Sunday enormous solid blocks of stone rose to a height of 2,500 feet from the crater, while ashes and sand were thrown much higher, but towards Monday the terrible shocks of earthquake gradually diminished. One of the worst features of the eruption was the unusual extent of the electrical phenomena, the darkness being broken by vivid flashes of lightning, giving the sky a bloodless color, with short heavy peals of thunder interspersed. These moments were terrible—very terrible. Yes, it was a veritable hell."

Asked if his scientific observations had yielded valuable results, Prof. Matteucci replied:

"Observation was extremely difficult under such disturbing conditions. The scientific instruments were badly affected by the electrical intensity, each explosion being announced by a violent movement in the instruments, which seemed ready to burst into pieces."

"Compared with other great eruptions," continues the observer, "this is one of the most important in the history of Vesuvius. Its effects are less terrible than those of the eruption in the year 79, when Pompeii was buried, but it equals in intensity the great eruptions of 1631 and 1872.

"What results this eruption will yield to science is not yet certain. Eruptions are not exact in science. You can't count on a Vesuvius. Each of its eruptions has its characteristics. This one was marked by an abundance of electrical phenomena."

Asked concerning Mount Vesuvius in the future, Prof. Matteucci said:

"I am unable to tell with any degree of certainty. I sincerely hope this eruption is over. But who can tell whether another terrible convulsion may not come during the next minute. However, all indications point to a period of calm for the next few days, and therefore I am hopeful. I was hopeful last night and a serious explosion occurred at 10 o'clock in the evening without any warning."

Prof. Matteucci handed the correspondent a stone the size of a three-inch shell as a souvenir of his visit, saying: "These are very precious stones. Some of them have hit me at one time or another. They represent my wounds."

As he turned to the portico, Vesuvius gave another deep groan, ending with a fearful explosion, which blew off a portion of its new cone.

"See," said the professor, "the eruption may be resumed at any moment. That explosion rent the west-erly cone."

Mount Vesuvius presents a majestic spectacle from this point of vantage, which is far inside the outer circle of smoke that hides the volcano from Naples. The great monster stands out clearly under the bright sunlight. It is entirely white, like a snow-covered mountain, for the ashes have changed its former deep green color. Its contour also has changed. The gigantic jagged cone no longer rises like the setting of an enormous jeweled ring. Instead the top now forms a graceful curve, harmonizing the gradual slope of the foothills.

The white surface of the mountain is silt here, leaving gulches through which lava courses. The wrecked remnant of the Funicular railway lies at the bottom of one of these gulches, the twisted cable protruding from the ashes. Singularly, an American scientist is the only one sharing Prof. Matteucci's opportunities of observation. This is Frank A. Perret, of New York.

"I have only been here three months," said Prof. Perret. "I came to Italy originally for my health. I had studied volcano disturbances and met Prof. Matteucci. We became mutually interested, and he honored me by inviting me to share his observations as an honorary assistant. The post of assistant to which I was recently appointed by the University of Naples came at a most fortunate time, as it permitted my observation of this tremendous disturbance, which is beyond the faintest conception of those outside the immediate terrors of Vesuvius."

The Volcano Well Subsides.
Naples, April 16.—The somewhat threatening condition of Mount Vesuvius Saturday night having subsided with the ejection of enormous clouds of sand and ashes, the elements have begun to settle slowly, again enveloping the mountain in a thick haze and cutting off the view from Naples, only the outline of the base being visible.

Prof. Matteucci last night issued the following bulletin:

"My instruments are now most calm. An emission of sand continues in abundant quantities and I wait serenely the satisfactory termination of the eruption."

Horrors Discovered by Rescuers.

At Otto Jano Sunday rescuers unearthed two aged women, still alive but speechless, after six days' entombment. They were among hundreds who were crushed beneath the falling walls during the rain of stones and ashes Sunday and Monday week. Hope had been abandoned of finding any of these persons alive. The women were protected by the rafters of the house in which they were in and managed to exist on a few morsels of food which they had in their pockets.

Work of salvage at San Gineppe has brought to light a remarkable condition. Bodies have been found of a woman in whose hands were coins and jewels and one woman held a rosary indicating the instinct to preserve earthly belongings in the moment of fleeing from death.

Excursion to Metropolis.

The excursion steamer George Cowling will run three round trips between Paducah, Metropolis and Brookport next Sunday, April 22, leaving Paducah at 9:30 a. m., 2 p. m. and 6 p. m. Returning will leave Metropolis at 1 p. m. and 5 p. m. Round trip 25 cents.

MAKES DEFENSE OF THE JEWS IN HOUSE

Representative McDermott Delivers an Unusual Speech.

If Christ Was Mortal, the Romans Crucified Him, So He Says.

HEBREWS AS A RACE DID NOT

Washington, April 16.—Attributing the persecution of Hebrews in Russia to the belief of ignorant persons that Christ was killed by Hebrews, and calling upon the Russian Greek church to halt the atrocities by teaching that this conviction is false, Representative Allen McDermott, of New Jersey, made a startling speech in the house last Wednesday.

It was delivered during the debate on the postal bill, and because it took the shape unusual for the floor of congress, of an analysis of the circumstances leading up to the death of the Savior, it commanded the attention of the house.

"With the approach of Easter," said Mr. McDermott, "come stories of threatened massacres in Russia. The persecution of Hebrews because they are Hebrews is today tolerated in but few places in the Christian world, but the spirit that is breathed in the words 'Christ killer' is found on the tongues of Christians in the new as well as the old world. The persecution of Hebrews has always ceased with apostasy. It is so in Russia today. Hebrews can obtain safety of life and property by declaring belief in the Russian Greek church.

"We can preach in the press and pulpit that the statement that Jesus Christ was crucified by the Hebrews is the wickedest falsehood that ever came from human lips.

"If Christ was mortal, if he was the son of Joseph and Mary, he was crucified by the Romans. If he was the son of God, he was crucified by the direction of his father. Under neither proposition can the Hebrews be held accountable. If he was mortal, he was the prisoner of Rome, and the Hebrews as a race never cried for his blood.

"When a mob lynches a prisoner in New Jersey, Delaware or South Carolina, we do not say he was lynched by the American people. The mob which yelled at Pontius Pilate was wholly without authority to say that its doings should become a charge against the Hebrew race.

"Let the church of Russia speak. Let the czar speak. Not one in one thousand Russians knows Christ was a Hebrew. The Russian church proclaims it has a garment worn by Christ and a picture of the Blessed Virgin drawn by St. Luke and the hand of St. Mark. Let the church of Russia resound with the cry that the hand of St. Mark was the hand of a Hebrew and that the garment of Christ was worn by a Hebrew.

"Tell those who crowd the churches that, on the day of final judgment, Jesus Christ will hold court with 12 Hebrews as associates. Tell the congregations that those who murder Hebrews will be condemned to eternal punishment. While the relics are paraded, let it be in the cause of humanity.

"It is almost impossible to estimate the advance which will be made if the Russian church will display on every Cathedral meeting-house and altar this legend:

"Remember Christ was born of a Hebrew woman. He was not executed by Hebrews, but died because commanded by His Father, the God whom you worship."

GOOD WORK

Done Daily in Paducah—Many Citizens Tell of It.

Nearly every reader has heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. Their good work in Paducah still continues, and our citizens are constantly adding endorsement by public testimony. No better proof of merit can be had severely, particularly under the neighbors. Read this case:

Mrs. George Romain, of 726 Tennessee street, says: "For three years my back was lame and ached severely, particularly under the shoulder blades, despite the use of medicine. I tried Doan's Kidney Pills, getting them at Alvey & List's drug store. They are easy to take, they cure you without causing any annoyance, and if I can judge from my present condition, when they cure you stay cured."

PRETTY YARDS.

To stimulate an interest in handsome yards, The Sun has offered a series of seven prizes for pretty yards, $10 cash for the prettiest yard in each of the six wards of the city, and a special prize of $15 for the prettiest yard in the city at large. To allow the people who live just beyond the city limits to enter the contests, those residences living within a half mile of the city limits will be eligible to the contest.

The Sun will appoint a committee to make the awards, and they will be made about July 15. This will give every one ample time to enter the contest and get their yards ready, and will not put the date so late that the lawns and flowers will have been burned up by our hot summer suns. Now that the town cow has been denied the privilege of running at large at pleasure, anywhere, a general movement to beautify the yards and streets of the city is in order, and The Sun makes these offers to stimulate an interest in pretty yards.

Don't wait for the building of more streets to have your sidewalks improved. Bad streets are unsightly, of course, but poor sidewalks are an abomination more annoying to the general public than are the streets. Get permission to rebuild your sidewalks and let the work go ahead, and afterwards the street work can be attended to. This will not only insure the new streets but will spread out the costs to you and the city. Try the idea and see how satisfactorily it will work to your good.

Considering the character of the men and their offense and the amount they cheated the government out of Greene and Gaynor get off with a very light sentence. Of course they will take their punishment and be glad to do so and after their sentence of imprisonment has been served will also take the oath of insolvency and escape the fine assessed against them. Ability to use discreetly the money they defrauded the government out of was a credit to the "ability" of these.

National Chairman Taggart says the next house will be Democratic. The same gentleman said that the Democrats would easily win the last national contest. The two statements show how little reliance it is necessary to place in Mr. Taggart's political prognostications.

This is just the season to help the city grow. Are you preparing to do your part? If not, why not?

considered the illness yesterday you can consider what they cost you.

Has Mt. Vesuvius really subsided? Southern Italy would like full assurance of the fact.

UNITED STATES COURT IN SESSION

Judge Evans Convened His Tribune this Forenoon.

The Docket Is Not Very Important and a Short Session May Follow.

THE DOINGS OF THE DAY

The regular term of federal court convened in Paducah at the custom house this morning at 9 o'clock. Judge Walter Evans, of Louisville, presiding. The dockets are not long and court will not last two days. If Judge Evans carries the work through with the usual characteristic dispatch. The court officers arrived last night at 6 o'clock and all was in readiness for the convening of court this morning.

Deputy Marshal's Work.
Deputy Marshal Wade Brown did exceptionally good work this term, having summoned every witness. He finished this morning when he served a summons on a Paducah man whom he had been unable to see Saturday, completing the work necessary for an uninterrupted session.

Court Officers.
The following are the court officers in attendance: Walter Evans, Louisville, judge presiding; G. W. Long, Leitchfield, Ky., marshal; Deputy Marshal Wade Brown, city; Miss Hortense Horton, Louisville; and William Blades, Louisville; Assistant District Attorney M. H. Thatcher and H. C. Gullis, of Louisville; court clerk William Kenn, of Louisville, colored.
The bailiffs selected are Messrs. L. A. M. (Fayette) Grief and O. A. Weatherington.
Two members of the government service, Detective S. A. Donnell and Revenue Agent R. C. Shelley, of Louisville, are in attendance.

The Grand Jury.
The grand jury was empaneled as follows: Branch Miller, city; J. D. Bennett, Maxon's Mill; G. W. Thomas, Woodville; R. A. Sexton, Kuttawa; Ed. Hurt, Murray; C. E. Clark, Kirtsey; G. H. Hurley, Marion; Geo. P. Rogers, Smithland; D. C. McClelland, Dublin; John F. Jones, Kansas; Joe Surrency, Symsonia; W. B. Randolph, Claxton; John B. Board, Rufus; John T. Cook, Cadiz; W. M. Foust, Brensburg, and W. H. Cam, Cunningham.

The Petit Jury.
The petit jury was empaneled as follows: Alex. J. Willett, city; W. M. Davis, colored, city; J. C. Browder, Fulton; R. J. Doon, Kuttawa; E. H. Pace, Hardin; C. J. Black, Kuttawa; R. H. Straks, Benton; C. L. Hill, Murray; E. Futrell, city; G. W. Lee, city; A. J. Spickard, Rich; D. M. Stevenson, Princeton; H. B. Allen, Crider; A. B. Franklin, Cunningham; T. R. Green, Milburn; E. K. Grasty, Cadiz; C. T. Nabb, Cerulean; C. M. Dennis, Birdsall; M. F. Cloys, Farmington; Felix Wilson, Mayfield; H. S. Rogers, Lynn Grove; W. N. Elsey, Bardwell; W. W. Thacker, Lamasco; W. S. Roach, Harlow, and L. L. Stevenson, Hinkleville.

Visiting Attorneys.
This term of court brought very few visiting attorneys. Those from surrounding towns are Attorneys J. H. Robbins, Pete Seay and Harry Moorman, of Mayfield; John C. Gates, of Princeton and Will Linn, of Murry.

Criminal Docket.
Judge Evans began business with a rush and transacted the criminal business with remarkable rapidity. Lon Rollins, the country youth who went on the warpath supplied with bad liquor, and demolished a mail box in the lower end of the state, was brought into court and asked if guilty or not guilty. He pleaded the latter but his father was with him and, after a conference, decided to change the plea to guilty. He was given 50 days in jail. The boy stated that he was so drunk when he did it that he did not remember and did not want to plead guilty to something he did not know he had really done.

The first jury trial was in the case of W. H. Traylor and Walter Greer, of Mayfield, charged with bootlegging. They were found guilty but the administering of the sentence taken under advisement. Traylor is one of the two men who enlivened the last term of court by a free-for-all fight in the court room.

The indictment against Ed Lezinski, because of a technicality, was dismissed and referred to the present grand jury.

The case against M. G. Cope was continued on the filing of two affidavits for continuance, because of the absence of important witnesses.

The case against J. G. West was continued pending a compromise.

Jo M. St. John, the steamboat engineer, pleaded guilty to operating the Jesse B. without the proper license, but sentence was suspended pending a reference to the statutes. Capt. T. E. Buckingham, of the steamer Margaret, who piloted the boat a short distance without a license, was fined $100 and costs on pleading guilty.

This afternoon the grand jury made its first return through its foreman, W. M. Foust, returning six papers, one an ignorance of an illicit whiskey selling charge; Houston Hammond, Curtis Jones, Thomas Carman and James Vlek, white, and Thomas Carman, colored, were indicted for illicit whiskey selling and lien Phillet ignored.

They all pleaded not guilty and are being tried this afternoon.

W. H. Traylor's sentence was pronounced this afternoon, he being given six months in jail and a fine of $100. In the case against Walter Greer the same penalty was imposed.

Jo St. John was this afternoon fined $100 and costs and the judgment suspended until June 1 in a case tried this morning.

Henry Elliott's bond of $400 was declared forfeited.

Civil Docket.
Little was done this morning in the civil court.

In the case of Josiah P. Cowper against M. E. Wren, J. N. Dewell and others, a continuance was ordered, the death of Dewell being suggested.

In the case of F. G. Rudolph, guardian of Ione Rose, against the Interstate Life Insurance company; Clark Alexander against the I. C. road; Anna B. Scott, administrator, against the I. C. road; John L. Smith, administrator, against the I. C. road, transcripts were filed.

The case of J. E. Stevenson, administrator, against the I. C. was dismissed as settled.

In the action of Hodge Brothers against Eugene Guess and others, a judgment was entered against the defendants except the two Hozemans whose death is suggested.

In the case of Minnie Tice against A. T. Hurley, suit for damages, a demurrer to the jurisdiction of the court was made and argued, and the court continued the action. He will investigate and render a decision in vacation. This is where the plaintiff desires to recover damages for the death of her husband.

In the case of Wm. Foster and others against Officer Thad Terrell, for damages for assaulting him and arresting him without charge, a demurrer to the jurisdiction of the court was filed and taken under advisement.

The case of the Carlisle Manufacturing company against the I. C. road was dismissed because of the lack of prosecution.

The case of John Winston's administrator against the I. C. was dismissed because of the lack of proof.

The civil case against Friedman and the Laevison Co. for irregularities in shipment of heverages, brought to enforce a penalty, was taken under advisement by the court. The evidence has been heard in the three consolidated actions.

Adultery Docket.

The case of James Koger against the steamer Henry Harley was dismissed and settled.

In the case of Dennis Hunt and Wm. Cameron against the steamer Joe B. Williams the evidence was heard and the matter left open for a decision.

In the case of the Eaton Lumber Co. and Hawkins & Son, against the steamer Charleston, a fine of $75 was entered.

Bankruptcy Docket.

In the matter of T. O. Fisher, bankrupt, an allowance of $20 was

The Police Court.

Dock Jackson, colored, who lives in a house which he has dubbed "My Old Kentucky Home," located in Boyd's alley on the North Side, was fined $25 and costs in police court this morning for operating a disorderly house. He had some beer and other beverages and a few females in the house and they were not acting within the bounds of conventionality and were "pulled."

The case against George Farrell, white, for alleged malicious assault on Will Hamilton was partly heard this morning but the matter left open for more evidence. Hamilton had been unable to attend court until today, having been badly used in the difficulty which occurred several weeks ago.

The cases against Ben Allen and W. C. Gray, their bartenders and Fannie Wilson and Violet Lee, for entering a saloon and for permitting the women to enter a saloon, contrary to ordinance, were continued. This is to test the validity of the "ladies women" ordinance.

Other cases were: Henry Keller, white, profanity, $5 and costs; Mike Murray, white, drunk and disorderly, $5 and costs; Matthew Scott, colored, robbery, warrant filed away; Will Barker, colored, $5 and costs, and Hom Jones, colored, dismissed of a breach of the peace charge; George Bolton, Minnie Davis, breach of ordinance, $5 and costs; R. E. Driffin, white, obtaining money by false pretenses, bond forfeited. Driffin understood he had waived examination under the old bond, and the matter will be patched up today and the case referred to the grand jury. He is accused of selling brass belonging to the I. C.

Circuit Court.

Judge Reed held court this morning for a short time to receive the report of the grand jury and to transact some minor business.

The following briefly stated was the gist of the business:

P. H. Stewart filed suit against John B. Hobson for $110. He alleged that he had to pay a fine of $100 in circuit court for Hobson who was fined for cutting in sudden heat and passion. He went Hobson's bond and rather than have it forfeited and required to pay $200, paid the fine, the charge being taken as confessed.

Chas. Hawthorne was excused as petit juror and W. T. Pepper substituted.

Nellie Pope was discharged of running a bawdy house. She had sold out before the indictment.

The following bawdy-house keepers were fined $40 and costs: Ella Howe, Frankie Dixon, Fannie Wilson, Helen Westlake.

Filing a Big Mortgage.

Henderson, Ky., April 16.—A mortgage for $5,000,000 has been filed for record in the office of County Clerk Mills. The instrument was in fact a deed of trust to the Columbia Finance and Trust company of Louisville by the Central Home Telephone company. It was for the purpose of insuring the redemption of bonds issued by the telephone company to the trust company and to insure the payment of money due the trust company.

The instrument was filed by Houston Quinn, an attorney of Louisville. Mr. Quinn is making a tour of the state and is filing the mortgage in every county where the independent telephone people own any property.

The Central Home Telephone company operates in the eastern part of the state and in the counties of Henderson, Webster, Union, Christian, Daviess and McCracken in the west. One of the heaviest stockholders in the company is F. L. Barbour, of Illinois. It is said the company wants money to be used in improving its lines after its indebtedness is paid. A copy of the mortgage was filed yesterday at Madisonville.

Other deeds filed were: Henry Houses deeds to John Herndon for $50, property in the county. P. M. Houser deeds to J. G. Whitte for $5 and other considerations, property in the county.

MR. W. B. McPHERSON
has secured the services of Mr. Edward Dobbins, a soda water expert of Syracuse, N. Y. Mr. Dobbins comes highly recommended and has assumed charge of the Soda Water Department.

The America came out of the Tennessee early this morning with a tow of ties for transfer at Brookport.

The Duffy came in from the Tennessee with a tow of ties last night and laid up for awhile.

The Klt Carson came in yesterday from the Cumberland with a tow and tied up.

Our telegraphic columns tell of the sinking yesterday of the Evansville excursion boat Louisiana. Though crowded with people all were saved.

In anticipation of the increased river trade the coming season, several of the boats plying out of the port of Cincinnati will have their sleeping quarters enlarged up to the government allowance.

The following orders have been issued by the department of labor and commerce of the United States: "Masters and pilots are hereby notified of the following changes of lights: A new light has been established at the head of Captina, to be known as Captina Island No. 1; it is on the right of the channel. Captina Island No. 1 (old) takes the name of Captina No. 2. Captina Island No. 2 (old) takes the name of Captina No. 3. A new light has been established at the foot of Big Grave Creek Bar, to be known as Big Grave Creek No. 2; it is on the left of the channel. Big Grave Creek (old) is to be known as Big Grave Creek No. 1.

The Pittsburg Gazette says: "The report of the lockmaster at Davis Island Dam for the month of March show the tonnage of the southbound freight to be 437,298 and of northbound freight 8,027. There were 33 packets and 11 towboats up river during the month. The boats sent out included 43 packets and 120 towboats. The freight coming up the river consisted of 600 tons of lumber and 7,427 tons of miscellaneous materials, nearly all of which came by packets. The shipments down the river were as follows: Coal, 357,405 tons; lumber, 15 tons; and miscellaneous freight, 6,825 tons."

The steamer S. S. Brown which is being built at Pittsburg for the Memphis and Vicksburg Packet company, will be equipped with a conveying apparatus, that works on the order of elevators. It is the belief that it will do away with roustabouts. There are two on the boiler deck that will carry freight aft and fore of the boat and one on a 70 stage that will bring it from the river bank to the deck of the boat. They are being arranged to be operated by electricity.

More New Regulations.

Supervisor E. L. Dotsey, of the Sixth district, who attended the meeting of the steamboat supervisors in Washington several weeks ago, has received and is giving out a copy of the amended regulations for steamboat inspection, which have been approved by Victor Metcalfe, secretary of commerce and labor. Many rigid requirements have been added, though most of these refer to the coast and lake service. With few exceptions the changes in the rules relate to fuller fire and life-saving protection.

As far as western rivers are concerned, the rules that most concern this district relate to the placing of steam pumps on steamboats. Heretofore any sort of pump has been allowed. The new regulation will permit boats whose tonnage is under 50 to use the "doctor" as an equivalent for the special steam pump, but over that size the steam fire pump must be provided.

Steamboats carrying passengers, and having tonnage between 20 and 500, must also have good fire pumps worked by hand, thus protecting the boat in case of injury to the machinery to the machinery. Below 20 tons the regulations are practically fixed by the local surveyors of port.

Another important regulation is the compulsory use of fire extinguishers on towboats, which have never heretofore been required. On boats between 200 and 500 tons one chemical extinguisher must be used, while over that tonnage two must be provided.

Pilots on towboats have hitherto been allowed to be selected from any of the crew, but the regulation as amended requires that the pilot must have had three years' experience, one of which must have been spent in the pilot house as steersman. Inexperienced men will therefore not be allowed to handle the boat.

SETTLED INSURANCE CLAIM.

Mr. W. E. Parrish, assistant to the president of the Citizens' Life Insurance Co., of Louisville, was in the city Saturday having come to settle the insurance claim on the death of the late Rev. J. S. Check.

Mr. Parrish settled the claim in full, amounting to $5,000, and will remain in Paducah several days probably looking over the field. He has one of the best insurance companies doing business in the state, and proposes to start a move on foot to make his company the most popular one in the city.

People and Pleasant Events

Celebrated His Birthday.

Yesterday, Paducah's popular city auditor, Mr. Alex. Kirkland, celebrated a birthday—he says his 16th. Well, the adage has it "A man is as old as he feels," and Mr. Kirkland's vigorous personality and happy humaneness go to mark him at the golden age of life, so his host of friends do not gainsay his word. At any rate, "here's to him" and may he have many more such sixteen years. He celebrated the event quietly at his home, 1611 West Broadway, but in the spirit of the Easter time.

Paducahans Go From Home to Wed.

Miss Edna Smith and Mr. Mervin G. Trowell, of this city, were married yesterday at the Halliday house in Cairo. They returned to the city last night and will reside in the Mechanicsburg section.

The bride is a popular young lady of the North Side, living on Fountain avenue. The groom is a prominent young man engaged in the leather business. He is a son of Mr. Sherman Trowell, the well known insurance man of Mechanicsburg.

Miss Alice Turner and Mr. Luther Bailey, both prominent young people of Mechanicsburg, went to Princeton yesterday and were married by Rev. R. R. Richey of the Baptist church. They were accompanied by Mr. Ollie Barnett, son of Councilman Barnett, and Miss Daisy Schamer, of Mechanicsburg. All returned home last evening.

Wedding Banns Published.

First reading of the wedding banns was given yesterday morning at the St. Francis de Sales Catholic church, of Dr. Louis F. Hoff, of this city, and Miss Katherine Ryan of Central City, which was announced some days since. It will take place in May at the St. Martin Catholic church in Central City.

Easter Egg Hunt.

The children of the Grace Episcopal Sunday school are enjoying an Easter egg hunt this afternoon in the grounds of Mrs. Elbridge Palmer's home, "The Ferns," on West Clark street.

Debut Club.

The Debut Club will meet tomorrow morning at 9:45 o'clock at the Carnegie library. All the members are requested to be present promptly.

German Tont.

The Cotillon club will give its Easter german at the Palmer House this evening. It promises to be a large and delightful occasion.

Mrs. J. C. Jones left the city today for Sedalia, Mo., to reside.

Miss Bessie Bahr left this morning at 11:30 for Evansville, to visit her aunt, Mrs. Anna Bahr, of that city.

Mr. George C. Wallace and Attorney J. C. Flournoy returned today from a business trip to Atlanta.

SEWER EXTENSION

CONTRACT TO COVER SOUTH-WESTERN PART OF CITY.

This Work Done Authorities Will Be Prepared for Emergencies for Such Work.

The city is preparing for emergencies and will have all territory north of Trimble street from the present terminal of the sanitary and storm water sewers surveyed and all preliminaries made for one in event the city should have occasion to make such an extension. The surveys will run to the city limits and take in Rowlandtown and all territory north of Trimble street.

Mr. J. W. Alford, the sanitary expert from Chicago who secured the contract to make preliminary surveys of the West End sanitary sewer district was in Paducah Saturday and received instructions to this effect from the committee which met him for this purpose.

He will send a squad of men here to look after the work, starting the job about Thursday. This will be additional work, for the contractor and will call for extra pay over the contract price of the West End job.

The city will then be prepared for extending sewers wherever wanted, except in the extreme south end of the city.

A LITTLE BOY

BORN TO UNFORTUNATE MOTHER IN PATROL WAGON.

Was Being Taken to Riverside Hospital, By Request, At the Time.

Austin Terrell Heggis Brown is the name of a boy baby born this morning between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock, at Ninth and Jackson streets while the young mother, Mary Brown, of Gilbertsville, Ky., was being conveyed to Riverside hospital in the city patrol wagon.

This morning about 2 o'clock City Physician Haggis was notified that the young woman, who was employed as a domestic in a family residing on Jackson street between Ninth and Tenth streets, was in a delicate condition, and the family requested that she be removed to the city hospital.

Patrol Driver John Austin was called and the young woman was soon in the patrol wagon being transferred to the hospital. When the wagon reached Ninth street the woman became a mother of a boy, Dr. H. T. Heggis and a fellow physician were pressed into service and attended the woman before the wagon moved on.

She was made as comfortable as possible and then taken to the hospital. She is doing nicely today and the son is said to be doing as well.

The young woman came here from Gilbertsville two months ago and little is known of her. She will be taken care of at Riverside until able to leave.

Because of the attention given by Patrol Driver John Austin, Officer Thad Terrell and Dr. Heggis the child will bear all their names.

WILL WED TONIGHT.

Mr. Roy S. Ballowe, and Miss Addie Miller will be married tonight at 8 o'clock at the residence of Alderman W. T. Miller by Rev. W. E. Cave.

The announcement will come as a surprise to their many friends, having been kept a secret until today, when the marriage license was issued.

Mr. Ballowe is manager of the Sleeth pharmacy at 10th and Broadway and is one of the most popular young pharmacists in the city.

Miss Miller is the adopted daughter of Alderman W. T. Miller, and as for her popularity and attractiveness is an accomplished musician, having been prominent in all musical entertainments in the city for the past several years.

The marriage will be a quiet home affair with a few friends and relatives in attendance. They will make their home at the bride's residence for the present.

Deaths About Fulton. Fulton, Ky., April 16.—Mrs. Mary Johnson, wife of Col. Jack Johnson, died Friday morning at her home near Dukeedom, Tenn., eight miles east of this city. She was 84 years old and death was due to general debility. Besides her aged husband, she leaves four children, Mrs. F. V. Pegram, of Fulton, Mrs. James Tibbs and Will Johnson, of Buena Vista, Tenn., and C. A. Williams, of Kansas. The burial will occur at Buena Vista churchyard.

Mrs. Marguerite E. Simpson, aged 81, died very suddenly Wednesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. P. Holland. She had been in unusually good health of late and death resulted from an attack of heart trouble. Deceased was the widow of the late Nathaniel Simpson, one of Fulton county's wealthiest and most prominent citizens. She was the mother of City Tax Collector J. N. Simpson and Mrs. J. P. Holland.

THE NORMAL SCHOOLS

THE COMMISSION WILL ADVERTISE FOR BIDS FOR LOCATION.

Work of Local School Census Takers Showing Slight Increase in Numbers.

Prof. E. G. Payne, principal of the High school, who is a member of the State Normal School commission, returned Sunday from Frankfort after attending the organization of the commission.

The commission was organized with H. M. Arnett, of Nicholasville, Ky., chairman and John Meyers, of Covington, Ky., secretary. The state was divided or rather left to the decision of Supt. E. H. Mark, of Louisville, who suggested drawing a line through the center of Louisville but taking in three legislative counties in the eastern part of the division for the western portion, thus making the legislative districts number the same.

The commission decided to advertise at once for bids to be opened at a date to be set later. This completed the work of the commission and adjournment was ordered.

There is likely to be some pretty spirited competitive bidding among the eastern cities for the Eastern State Normal school, but little interest is manifested in this end of the state, Howling Green seeming to be the only town hot after the school.

The City School Census.

The city school census takers are still busily engaged in their work and two reports have been made the board already, showing an increase of about 100 pupils in two wards. Last week Mr. Henry Nunn, of the Third and Fourth wards, reported the completion of the Third with an increase of over ten and this morning Mr. R. M. McGuire, of the First and Second, reports the completion of the latter with an increase of 70 pupils.

The work is gratifying to the school board members. The greater the number of pupils the more money from the state.

—Mr. John Davis, of Sixth and Broad streets, was taken to Riverside hospital Sunday afternoon in the Guy Nance ambulance for treatment. He was operated on several days ago.

EFFECTIVE WORK

BEING DONE BY DR. MCCORMACK, OF A. M. SOCIETY.

Will Tour the State in the Interest of His Profession—Comes Here May 8th.

Dr. J. N. McCormack, representative of the American Medical Society, is a very busy man and his work throughout Kentucky is being felt. He comes to Paducah on the 8th of May to attend the meeting of the Southwestern Kentucky Medical Society, and his address will be a feature of the meeting.

The following extract from the Kentucky Medical Journal will show a few facts about the work the doctor is doing:

"Dr. McCormack has addressed popular audiences all over the United States upon 'The Proper Relations of the Medical Profession to the Public,' and says that he is especially gratified to take up the work with our own people, and for our own profession. His talk is especially on the business side of medicine, and the danger to the public from poverty in the profession, and he insists after large experience in the work, that this can be made as interesting and profitable to laymen as to physicians. 'Dr. McCormack promises to remove much of the popular prejudice against the profession in each community, and try to secure the kind of support and co-operation from the people in all of our work to which we are entitled.'"

Dr. McCormack has a great deal to do in this state as will be seen by the following itinerary:

A FOOLISH WOMAN'S TRICK

Waylaid Many Telegraphic Messages, But Why Is Not Clear.

Hot Springs, Ark., April 16.—It has been discovered by the officials of the Western Union office here that a messenger boy who had been working for the company but a short time, within three days took almost one hundred messages to his home, where they had been signed for.

The boy, who is but ten years old, is Wylie Perry, living on Crescent avenue. Chief Operator L. M. Boone went to his home, and after confronting his mother with evidence of the boy's guilt, secured about 100 messages, some of great importance, announcing deaths, or having bearing on business deals. The woman confessed to Boone that she had opened the envelopes, but refused to tell who signed for the messages in the delivery book.

It is thought by the telegraph officials that the woman, believed from the words printed on Western Union envelopes that some of the telegrams contained money.

They are debating as to what measure, if any, they shall take toward punishing the woman. Her husband is said to be a former preacher, who now works as a carpenter.

Danger From the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. Mrs. Geo. Wallis of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures La Grippe gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption, Coughs and Colds. 50c and $1.00. "I AM WELL"

LETTER FROM SOLDIER RECEIVED AFTER 45 YEARS DELAY.

Missive Delayed At Front During the Civil War Just Reached One Addressee.

Stoughton, Mass., April 16.—"It is as though my boy had spoken to me from the dead."

These are the words Eliza Hawes, who is nearly 93 years of age, repeats as he reads and reads over again a letter he has just received, through the dead letter office, from his son, who died in Virginia during the Civil war. The letter was written 15 years ago.

Where the letter has been during all the years and why it did not reach him sooner is a mystery to Hawes and his friends. The young man was killed at the age of 22 by lightning after being at the front about six months.

The letter was the last he had written to his family. With it came a paper of the same date. The boy was a great favorite of his father and his death was a grief from which Hawes has never recovered.

"I can't realize," says Mr. Hawes, "that the boy who wrote the letter would be 67 years old and a Civil war veteran now if he had lived."

The letter is a boyish one, giving details about the long marches, and is full of messages for family and friends. "I am well," it ends.

FRANCE FLOATS LOAN.

The $400,000,000 Asked By Russia Will Be Raised In Paris.

Paris, April 16.—The official confirmation of the report that the Russian financiers and French bankers had settled on the terms for the new Russian loan was received almost too late today to affect the bourse. The terms agreed upon are as already called, namely $400,000,000, in 5 per cent, bonds at about 88, the issue to be April 26. France will subscribe for $250,000,000. In official and financial circles the terms are considered sufficiently satisfactory to insure over-subscription.

A Young Mother At 70.

"My mother has suddenly been made young at 70. Twenty years of intense suffering from dyspepsia had entirely disabled her, until six months ago, when she began taking Electric Bitters, which have completely cured her and restored the strength and activity she had in the prime of life," writes Mrs. W. THE SPENDERS

A TALE OF THE THIRD GENERATION

By HARRY LEON WILSON

Copyright, by Lothrop Publishing Company.

From this headquarters the old man went forth to join in the diversions of his grandson. And here he kept a watchful eye upon the uncertain Billy Brue; at least approximately. Between them, his days and nights were occasional to crowding. But Uncle Peter had already put in some hard winters, and was not wanting in fortitude. Billy Brue was a sore trouble to the old man. "I just can't keep him off the streets tonight," was his chief complaint. By day Billy Brue walked the streets in a decent, orderly manner of bewilderment. He was properly puzzled and amazed by many strange matters. He never could find out what was "going on" to bring so many folks into town. They all hurried somewhere constantly, but he was never able to reach the center of excitement. Nor did he ever learn how anyone could reach those high clothes lines, strung 40 feet above ground between the backs of houses; nor how there could be "so many shown in town, all on one night," nor why you should get so many good things to eat by merely buying a "slug of whiskey," nor why a thousand people weren't run over in Broadway each 24 hours.

At night, Billy Brue seemed to be the astounded alien, and, as Percival said Dr. Von Herzlich would say, "began to mingle and cooperate with his environment." In the course of this process he fell into adventures, some of them, perhaps, unedifying. But it may be told that his silver watch with the braided leather fob was stolen from him the second night out; also that the following week, in a Twenty-ninth street saloon, he accepted the hospitality of an affable stranger, who had often been in Montana City. His explanation of subsequent events was entirely satisfactory, at least, from the time that he returned to consciousness of them.

"I only had about $30 in my clothes," he told Percival, "but what made me so darned hot, he took my breastpin, too, mule out of the first nugget ever found in the Early Bird mine over Silver Bow way. Gee! when I woke up I couldn't tell where I was. This kept him found me in a hallway, he says I must have been give a dose of Peter. I say, "All right—I'm here to go against all the games," I says, "but pass me when the Peter comes around again," I says. And he says Peter was knock out drops. Say, honestly, I didn't know my own name till I had a chance to look me over. The clothes and my hands looked like I'd seen 'em before, somehow—and then I come to myself."

After this adventure, Uncle Peter would caution him of an evening: "Now, Billy, don't stay out late. If you ain't been gone through by 11, just hand what you got on you over to the first man you meet—none of 'em'll ask you any questions—and then pike fur home. The later at night it gets in New York the harder it is for strangers to stay alive. You're all right in Wardner or in Hellandgone, Billy, but in this here camp you're just a tender little bed of pansies by the wayside, and these New Yorkers are terrible careless where they step after dark."

Notwithstanding which, Mr. Brue continued to behave uniformly in a manner to make all judicious persons grieve. His place of supreme delight was the Highbrow. Its marble splendour, its myriad lights, the throngs of men and women in evening dress, made for him a scene of unfulfilling fascination. The evenings when he was invited to sit in the cafe with Uncle Peter and Percival made memories long to be cherished.

He spent such an evening there at the end of their first month in New York. Half a dozen of Percival's friends sat at the table with them from time to time. There had been young Beverly Van Arsdell, who, Percival disclosed, was heir to all the van Arsdell millions, and no end of a swell. And there was big, handsome Eddie Arledge, whose father had treated him shabbily. These two young gentlemen spoke freely about the inferiority of many things "on this side"—as they denominated this glorious Land of Freedom—of many things from horses to wine. The country was rapidly becoming, they agreed, no place for a gentleman to live. Eddie Arledge confessed that, from motives of economy,

he had been beguiled into purchasing an American cinnet. "I fancied you know," he explained to Uncle Peter, "that it might do for an ordinary luncheon cinnet, but on my sacred honor, the stuff is villainous. Now you'll agree with me, Mr. Bines, I dare say, that a Bordeaux of even recent vintage is vastly superior to the very best so-called American cinnet."

Whereupon Beverly Van Arsdell having said: "To be sure—fancy an American Burgundy, now! or a Chablis!" Uncle Peter betrayed the first sign of irritation Percival had detected since his coming.

"Well, you see, young men, we're not much on vintages in Montana. Whiskey is mostly our drink—whiskey and spring water—and if our whiskey is strong, it's good enough. When we want to test a new barrel, we inject three drops of it into a jack-rabbit, and if he doesn't lick a bulldog in six seconds, we turn down the goods. That's as far as our education has ever gone in vintages."

It sounded like the old Uncle Peter, but he, was afterward so good-natured that Percival concluded the irritation could have been but momentary.

CHAPTER XX.

UNCLE PETER HINES THREATENS TO HARBOR SOMETHING.

Uncle Peter and Billy Brue left the Highbrow at midnight. Billy Brue wanted to walk down to their hotel, on the plea that they might see a fight or a fire "or something." He never ceased to feel cheated when he was obliged to ride in New York. But Uncle Peter insisted on the cab.

"Say, Uncle Peter," he said, as they rode down, "I got a good notion to get me one of them first-part suits—like the minstrel wear in the grand first part, you know—only I'd never be able to get on to the track right without a hustler to harness me and see to all the buckles and cinch the straps right. They're mighty fine, though."

Finding Uncle Peter uncommunicative, he mused during the remainder of the ride, envying the careless ease with which Percival and his friends, and even Uncle Peter, wore the prescribed evening regalia of gentlemen, and yearning for the distinguished effect of its black and white elegance upon himself.

They went to their connecting rooms, and Billy Brue regretfully sought his bed, marveling how free people in a town like New York could ever bring themselves to waste time in sleep. As he dozed off, he could hear the slow, measured tread of Uncle Peter pacing the floor in the next room.

He was awakened by hearing his name called. Uncle Peter stood in a flood of light at the door of his room. He was fully dressed.

"Awake, Billy?"

"Is it gittin' up time?"

The old man came into the room and lighted a gas jet. He looked at his watch.

"No; only a quarter to four. I ain't been to bed yet."

Billy Brue sat up and rubbed his eyes.

"Rheumatiz again, Uncle Peter?"

"No; I been thinkin', Billy. How do you like the game?"

He began to pace the floor again from one room to the other.

"What game?" Billy Brue had en-

Woman's Trials.

The bitter trail in a woman's life is to be childless. Who can tell how hard the struggle may have been ere she is led to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to bind marital life together, the absence of this one pledge to mutual affection is a common disappointment. Many unfortunate couples become estranged thereby. Even if they do not drift apart, one may read the whole extent of their disappointment in the eyes of such a childless couple when they rest on the children of others. To them the largest family does not seem too numerous.

In many cases of barrenness, childlessness the obstacle to child-bearing is easily removed by the cure of weakness on the part of the woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring health and fruitfulness to many a barren woman, to the great joy of the household. In other, but rare cases, the obstruction to the bearing of children has been found to be of a surgical character, but easily removable by painless operative treatment at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., under which Dr. Pierce of the "Favorite Prescription" fame presides. In all cases where children are desired and are absent, an effort should be made to find the real cause, since it is generally so easily removed by proper treatment.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, inflammation and debilitating, catarrhal diseases and all cases of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for women's use. The ingredients of which the "Favorite Prescription" is composed have received the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Materia Medica of all the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, which he can afford to do as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

A BOY'S PRANK

CHIEF FIRE AT DOOR OF A CROWDED CHURCH.

Stampede Followed and Four Lives Were Lost in Crash Which Was Caused.

Chicago, April 16.—During a panic which followed a false cry of fire, Saturday night, while four hundred persons were participating in the Easter eve services in St. Ludmilla's Roman Catholic church, three children and one woman were killed, and a score of others injured, several seriously. The majority of the worshippers were women and children, and in a few minutes all were in a tangled mass, fighting to escape from supposed danger. Many jumped through the windows, but the greater portion, crowded to the central aisles. The extra weight proved too much for the floor, and some of the beams supporting it broke. The creaking of the timbers increased the fright, and everyone became panic-stricken—men, women and children fighting desperately to reach the outside. When the church was cleared three children were lying dead in the aisle, and one woman was so badly hurt that she died while being removed to the hospital.

A boy's prank was responsible for the accident. While Rev. W. W. Warnik, pastor of the church, was offering the evening prayer, one of a crowd of boys loitering outside the church suddenly pushed open the front door and shouted "fire." Seeing the serious effect his words had on the congregation the boy ran away and the police were unable to find him. When the alarm of fire was first given the pastor and ushers endeavored to quiet the congregation, explaining that there was no danger, but their words had no effect.

CAME NEAR BEING LYNCHED.

Enraged People of Portales Wanted to Take Law in Hand.

Rosewell, N. M., April 16.—E. L. Price, slayer of Conductor Frank Curtis, narrowly escaped a lynching at Portales just after it was learned that he had been convicted only of murder in the second degree, which carries a life sentence. The people wanted a hanging, but the strength of the jail, which is new, prevented them. The mob started for the jurors who rendered the verdict but they were warned and escaped. It was learned that Mrs. Curtis wanted Price to live and suffer. Price's brothers, F. M. and C. L. Price, of Madisonville, Ky., say they will spend their fortune of $150,000 to release him.

A NEW BRIDGE

COUNTY TO HAVE IRON ONE AT FLORENCE STATION.

Work to Be Done in Paducah—Will Cost Little and Insure Permanency.

The wooden bridge at Florence Station will be replaced at once by an iron bridge. The work will be done in Paducah. It will be the first iron bridge made here. The heavy rains which did so much damage to the county roads, culverts and bridges during the winter left the Florence Station bridge in bad repair. County Road Supervisor Johnson saw the necessity of a more substantial structure than can be made of wood and set about to build an iron bridge. He found that iron would cost him at the foundry not less than $67 a ton and he went to the Paducah Traction company to buy it. He secured a price of old street car track at $17 a ton and will buy enough to build the bridge. He has the plans all drawn out and is confident it will be a success. The idea is simple and easily executed. It will make as strong a bridge as possible to secure. Work will begin at once.

The estimated cost of the iron bridge is fixed at $75 by Road Supervisor Johnson, while if constructed by buying iron from foundries where moulded, would cost four times that amount. The bridge is to be 45 feet long, one span, and the fitting will be done by the Jackson Foundry and Machine company.

The only part of the structure to be wood will be the floor. It will set on concrete bases and will be a permanent bridge comparatively, lasting many years. Road Supervisor Johnson intends to put these bridges up at other places in the county as it means another big step in economy.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin Pans, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. It is a dandy for burns. Those who live on farms are especially liable to many accidental cuts, burns, bruises, which heal rapidly when Ballard's Snow Liniment is applied. It should always be kept in the house for cases of emergency." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Alvey & List.

WANTS HER STOCKS.

Daughter of Marshall Fields Suing for Father's Gift.

Chicago, April 16.—Mrs. Ethel Beatty, daughter of the late Marshall Fields, commenced suit Saturday against the executors of her father's estate, asking that the court direct them to turn over to her stocks and bonds to the amount of $857,000, which her father gave her before his death, but which were never delivered to her.

The suit is of a friendly character, and designed to give to the executors legal authority for the transfer of the securities.

Mrs. Beatty inherited an aggregate of $6,000,000 from her father's estate, and the $857,000 is in addition to that amount.

Cures Coughs and Colds.

Mrs. C. Peterson, 625 Lake St., Topeka, Kans., says: "Of all cough remedies Ballard's Horehound Syrup is my favorite; it has done and will do all that is claimed for it—to speedily cure all coughs and colds—and it is so sweet and pleasant to the taste. Sold by Alvey & List."

EASTER SERVICES

MARKED THE WORSHIP AT THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY.

Large Congregations Were Present to Enjoy the Words Proclaimed and Music Rendered.

Easter was celebrated with beautiful and impressive services at the Paducah churches. Many of the churches were banked with palms and flowers, the Easter lilies being the prevailing flower. The music was in keeping with the day and of an especial character. From all the pulpits the great theme of the Resurrection was touched upon in some way, and the sermons were alive with the beauty of hope and life everlasting.

At St. Francis de Sales Catholic church there were three services, at 8 and 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Father O'Sullivan, a young priest who had come to assist Father Jansen in the work here, said the mass at 12:30. The music was very beautiful and elaborate and the service most impressive. Many beside the regular congregation were present. Next Sunday a Mission will begin at this church. It will be conducted by the Reverend Fathers Lambert and Murphy of Chicago, distinguished men in their order.

Special Easter services were held at the Evangelical church yesterday. At the morning service the following twelve were received into the church by confirmation: Anna Tempel, Katherine Rock, Antoinette Kolb, Louise Roling, Carrie Beyer, Ethel Seamon, George Shelton, Wm. Walker, Harry List, Henry Tempel. Eighteen others were received into the church by confession of faith and by letter.

At night Easter song service was held. The choir sang five anthems. Songs were sung by Mrs. H. Harnel, Mrs. St. Bryant and Miss Mahel Shelton. An alto and tenor duet was sung by Mrs. U. Beyer and Mr. Herman Katterjohn. Miss Rosa Kolb officiated at the organ and Miss Mahel Shelton was the pianist. The colin played by Mrs. H. Bryant and the cornet played by Mr. Coney added greatly to the success of the service.

The Easter services at Grace Episcopal church began with Holy communion at 6:30 a. m., in commemoration of the Visit of the Women to the Tomb, which was an especially beautiful occasion and many were present.

Rev. David C. Wright's sermons at 10:45 a. m. and at 4:30 p. m. were appropriate to the Resurrection day, and partook of the strength and glory of this general work of the Christian faith. At the evening service the rites of Holy baptism were administered to five persons.

The Easter offering of the congregation of Grace church was $657.10. There were $300 in new subscriptions to the parish house, which has been completed just recently.

The annual parish meeting and election of the vestry of the church will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The reports of the church officers for the year will be made at this time.

At the Second Baptist church, Rev. E. H. Cunningham, the pastor, filled the pulpit in the morning, and Rev. Gordon W. Hill of Louisville, at night. There were three additions at the morning service and two at night, with a number of conversions. Baptism was administered after the evening service.

Rev. E. B. Farrar is expected to return from Louisville today, and the evangelistic services will continue throughout the week.

There were four fine services held at the Broadway Methodist church yesterday. At 9:15 a. m. and 3 p. m. Rev. Burke Culpepper preached to the young people and children.

At 11 a. m. Rev. J. B. Culpepper made a brief talk, and the services were given over to the reception of members into the church. Eighty-six were added to this church yesterday. At the evening hour Rev. J. B. Culpepper preached a strong sermon on "The Soul of Man." Large crowds were present at all the services which were very fine.

Rev. Calvin W. Thompson, of Denver, Col., filled the pulpit of the First Baptist church yesterday. Dr. Thompson came by special invitation of the committee appointed from this church to secure a pastor. He is a very eloquent divine, and formerly resided at Louisville, Ky. His sermons yesterday were strong and full of power and greatly pleased the large congregations who heard him. No definite action will be taken in calling a pastor until the trustees of the church met, which will be some time this week.

At the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning Rev. W. E. Cave, D. D., preached an eloquent sermon on "The Lilies of the Field." At the service the usual Easter collection for the Presbyterian orphanage at Anchorage, Ky., was taken and over $200 was raised.

An elaborate service of song was held at this church in the evening under the direction of the church organist Miss Ada L. Braxton. Some of the most notable talent of the city took part and the music was especially fine. A large audience was present.

Rev. B. W. Bass, of the Tenth St. Christian church, began a protracted meeting yesterday that will continue indefinitely. Mr. Bass preached at both services yesterday, but Rev. J. W. Hudspeeth, the South Kentucky evangelist, is expected to arrive today to assist him, and will fill the pulpit tonight. The interest and attendance yesterday was good.

A sunrise prayer service was held yesterday morning by the Christian Endeavor Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian church at Sixth street and Kentucky avenue. It was under the lead of Mr. C. C. Needham, formerly president of the Christian Endeavor society of this church, but lately of Pine Bluff, Ark. It was a very interesting and profitable service.

A special Easter program was rendered by the Sunday school of the M. E. church of Mechanicsburg. Many took part and it was a most interesting occasion. Rev. J. W. Cantrill, the pastor, preached in the morning on "The Resurrection."

The protracted meeting which has been in progress for two weeks at the Broadway Methodist church closed this morning with very gracious service, attended by conversions. The Messrs. Culpepper who have been assisting the Rev. T. J. Newell in the services have another engagement that will prevent their longer stay in the city. They will leave at 6 this evening for Huntsville, Ala., to begin a meeting there. They are strong, forcible preachers and converted men and have made many friends here.

The series of services have been very helpful to the church in every way, and it has been the most successful meeting ever held in this church.

The pastor, Dr. Newell, calls an special and important meeting of the official board of the church tonight at 7:30. All are urged to be present.

The Easter offering yesterday morning at the Broadway Methodist church, was for the organ fund. It was given over to the Hamsay society, who bought the organ, and will not be known until after their meeting this afternoon the exact amount of it.

You'll never acquire popularity by telling your neighbors how to do things.
